

Easy access to application shortcuts in Windows 10

I learned this from a recent episode The Mike Tech Show. If you want an easy way to see all the applications that are installed instead of navigating the clusterf$ck that is the start menu.

Open the run dialog by pressing Windows Key + R

Type in the following and press enter shell:appsfolder